

Books (Number 16)

1	Which classic author wrote under the name Currer Bell?	Charlotte Bronte
2	“The beautiful and damned” and “Tender is the night” are novels by which author?	F Scott Fitzgerald
3	The Ego and the Id published in 1923 is the work of which neurologist and founder of psychoanalysis?	Sigmund Freud
4	Barbara McCorquodale, famous for wearing pink a lot, wrote 723 novels in her life time but what is her pen name?	Barbara Cartland
5	What was the official language of society called in "1984" (by George Orwell)?	Newspeak
6	Which "Bond" wrote the book 'Reporting Royalty' in 2001?	Jennie Bond
7	Which public school, whose most famous pupil was Billy Bunter, was invented by the writer Frank Richards, and was the setting for his best-known stories?	Grey friars
8	In Mary Shelly's book, what is Frankenstein's first name?	Victor (Dr Victor Frankenstein)
9	'I am born. Whether I turn out to be the hero of my own life, or whether that station will be held by anybody else' are the opening lines of which Charles Dickens novel?	David Copperfield
10	Which Robert Louis Stevenson book, which has been turned into a number of films, is about the memoirs of David Balfour?	Kidnapped

Carpe Simia Quizzes