

General knowledge 31

1.	Arthur Wynne is credited as inventing which type of entertainment that has been a staple for newspapers and magazines for generations?	Crossword puzzle
2.	Podophilia is a sexual fetish for what part of the body?	Feet
3.	In mythology, Cupid is the son of which goddess?	Venus
4.	Mortice, tenon and dovetail are all types of what?	Joints
5.	According to the idiom, what do 'birds of a feather' do?	Flock together
6.	What name is given to a cow that has not had a calf?	Heifer
7.	Americans call them Bellhops, but what do we call them in Britain?	Porter
8.	Which word can mean a parasitic worm, the hook of an anchor or a lucky chance?	Fluke
9.	In the football world cup, what award is given to the goalkeeper with the most clean sheets?	The golden glove
10.	Marie Frederiksson was the lead singer with which Swedish duo?	Roxette