

General knowledge 28

| | | |
|-----|--|------------------------------------|
| 1. | What does a belfry hold (and it is not bats!) | Bells |
| 2. | An interrobang is a combination of which two symbols? | Question mark and exclamation mark |
| 3. | John Rankin Waddell, known as Rankin is famous in which field? | Photography |
| 4. | According to the nursery rhyme, Monday's child is what? | Fair of face |
| 5. | Café Terrace at Night is an 1888 oil painting by which Dutch master? | Vincent Van Gogh |
| 6. | The UK's Dyslexia Research Trust is somewhat ironically based in which British town? | Reading |
| 7. | Which famous building would you be visiting if you were in the postcode SW1A 0AA | The houses of parliament |
| 8. | Which Greek god is considered the herald of the gods, with winged sandals which allow him to move quickly between worlds of the mortal and divine? | Hermes |
| 9. | How many sides does a dodecahedron have? | 12 |
| 10. | Which month of the year does Trooping the Colour normally take place in? | June |