

Science 22

1.	Which is the science of matter and its behaviour?	Physics
2.	The scientific unit LUMEN is used in the measurement of what?	Light
3.	What was the 1st human invention that broke the sound barrier?	Whip
4.	What does the chemical symbol Pb stand for?	Lead
5.	Which ancient city shares its name with a system of weights for weighing precious metals and gemstones?	Troy
6.	What is the name given to the green alkaline fluid produced by the liver?	Bile
7.	What word describes substances that can be broken down by biological action?	Biodegradable
8.	The orbicularis oculi muscle is the fastest muscle in the human body, where exactly is it located?	The eyelid
9.	What is the name of the largest and longest nerve in the human body?	Sciatic
10.	How many moons does Venus have?	None