

Food and drink (Number 37)

| | | |
|-----------|---|--------------------|
| 1 | Which famous English brewer, established in 1787 next to London's Tower Bridge, has a cockerel as its emblem? | Courage |
| 2 | Roquefort cheese is made from the milk of which animal? | Sheep |
| 3 | Which chef featured in the 2012 BBC TV series "A Very Hungry Frenchman"? | Raymond Blanc |
| 4 | The two small pieces of dark meat at the back of poultry near the thigh are commonly known by what name? | Oysters |
| 5 | The white Palamino grape is primarily used in the manufacture of which fortified drink? | Sherry |
| 6 | Crème Anglais is another word for what? | Custard |
| 7 | What name is given to the enzymes taken from animal's stomachs that are used in cheese production? | Rennet |
| 8 | What cheese is Cyprus's 2nd biggest export – and it isn't Feta? | Halloumi |
| 9 | Australian Maria Anne Smith is famous for introducing what food? | Granny Smith Apple |
| 10 | Which acid is combined with sugar to make an acid drop? | Tartaric |

Carpe Simia Quizzes